Annexure III

The best practices have been promoted continuously to improve the academic and administrative functioning.

First Best Practice

Gender Sensitization

The College follows gender sensitization as its important and best practice to improve its academic administrative functioning. This is in the backdrop of the innumerable injustices, pains, violence committed on the Women from all corners of worlds and in all walks of life. Thus there is an urgent need to sensitize and enlighten the students thus empowering them to Right against such injustice.

Thus the undertakes to sensitize the students on gender issues and to strengthen the girl students to make them bold enough to recognize their participation and contribution,

The College is an instrument in arranging various community-oriented activities and had established linkages with NGOs and other agencies for organizing various programs. It also undertakes consultancy services on women related issues.

The College arranges the programs relating to gender issues which enable the women to stand in the great task of National development by making them know about their role and status in today's global world.

Following activities were conducted for gender sensitization.

1. A research project was undertaken on National perspective of Women's Rights.
2. Legal Aid Camps were conducted to aware the public on gender issues.
3. One Day Seminar on Women Empowerment – 20th October 2016 - Women's Studies Centre of the College conducted One Day Seminar on Women Empowerment on 20.10.2016. Mrs. V.C. Dandime, API, CAWC, Latur was invited as the Chief Guest of the Seminar. The seminar was planned to ignite the deliberations for bringing the gap between the law and ground realities and to discuss the role of women in India's inclusive growth and how women empowerment can increase the velocity of inclusive growth, through capacity building.

4. One Day Workshop on Sexual Harassment at Working Place – 27th February 2017 – Senior Advocate Shri. Vishal Dixit, Latur District Bar was invited a Resource Person of the Program and delivered a keynote address on the same. It was organized to sensitize the staff and students about the complaint Mechanism Authorities and Remedies under the Act. Staff and 200 students gave their active participation. The program was coordinated by Dr. Mahajan S.A.
5. Rally on Women Empowerment – 08th March 2017 - International Women's Day is an annual celebration in the College by recognizing women's economic, political and social achievements. It also serves to highlight the ongoing struggle for gender equality. On this occasion the Dayanand College of Law, Latur in collaboration with Women's Wing of Women Doctors Association, Latur organized a Rally to Empower Women and protested against women molestation.
6. A Talk on "Women in the changing world of works – 09th March 2017 - On the eve of Women's Day the College arranged a talk on "Women in the Changing World of Work" Mrs. Nayan Rajmane (MA, B.ed, M.Phil) a social activists and writer, Latur was invited as the Chief Guest of the Program. She delivered a speech on the topic women in the changing world of work.

Second Best Practice

Decentralization in Administration

The system of decentralization of administration is based on the Principle of individual and collective commitment and responsibility for effective functioning of an Institution to handle the various aspects of administrative problems and to work out the feasible solutions.

The system enables to identify the abilities and competency of different individuals particularly faculty whose expertise can be enhanced through further extension programs.

The administration is decentralized by delegating various responsibilities through several committees. Each committee is accountable for the Job entrusted.

The progress of the action plans are monitored in review meetings, Annual Plans are discussed in IQAC and Staff meetings; regular updates are received from the co-ordinators.

Thus it contributes for periodic review of various programmes, enhancement of capacity to work individually and in group.
