‘His first ‘Satyagraha’ in India was in Champaran, in Bihar. The peasant of that district were being cruelly treated by the British Indigo planters. Gandhiji left for Champaran to find out the truth. The news that a Mahatma had arrived to inquire into their suffering attracted thousands of peasants who flocked to have his darshan. The govt. got alarmed and Gandhiji was asked to leave the district. He refused and asked to appear before the magistrate. Later the case was withdrawn. Gandhiji lived with the peasants for some time in order to learn all about their hard lot. But he also taught them to be free and to stand on their feet. At least he succeeded in securing justice for the poor peasants.

Questions :

- (i) What do you understand by Satyagraha ?
 - (ii) What was the object of Champaran Satyagraha ?
